PRESBYTERIAN MEN RALLY AT RADCLIFFE PRESBYTERIAN

—Forrest Palmer, Associate Executive Presbyter for Congregational Support

With wonderful leadership such as Dr. James Wagner, President of Emory University (and a Presbyterian Elder!), men (and women) within the Presbytery gathered at Radcliffe Presbyterian Church on Saturday, March 5. The theme of the rally was, "Servant Leadership: Men In Mission." Workshop leaders were also outstanding. Dr. David Wallace (Dean of Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary), Doug Ellis (retired President of Southern Mills), Jim Watkins (former congressional staff and denominational staff) and Drs. Charles and Laura Mendenhall provided various reflections on men and spiritual growth, ethics in business, public service and family relationships.

During worship, the HIMSingers, men of Radcliffe, sang several selections, and Dr. Lloyd Green preached a sermon on Mirror, Window and Skylight." Radcliffe hosted the lunch, as well as wonderful hospitality, signs and greetings.

An evaluation was collected to help in planning future men's rallies. Charles Easley, Marvin Simmers, Bob King and Forrest Palmer served on the task force to plan this event.
